Acknowledgement

We must take this opportunity to express our heartfelt gratitude to the Kathmandu College of Technology for offering such high-quality education in the field of computer applications. This education enables students to expand their knowledge of computers and their applications across different fields. We also want to extend our sincere thanks to Mr. Pravin Burja Magar and the entire faculty of the Bachelor in Computer Application (BCA) program at Kathmandu College of Technology for motivating us to participate in various practical activities.

THANK YOU!
